Strengthening Communities Through Service

City of Burbank Park, Recreation and Community Services Department - Senior Services Division

BURBANK RSVP

Strengthening Communities
Through Service Since 1973

RSVP provides a variety of opportunities for those 55 years and older to participate in the life of our community through service.

Telephone: (818) 238-5370

Studies show that individuals who volunteer live longer, healthier and more fulfilling lives.

RSVP helps individuals stay active and involved. Volunteers join a large service network, learning new skills and proving that retirement can be an opportunity to put the skill and experience of a lifetime to work for the benefit of others. Through nonprofit organizations and local public agencies in more than one-fourth of the nations counties, RSVP recruits, screens and places senior volunteers in rewarding part-time opportunities for community service.

Many RSVP Volunteers have lived in their communities for a long time. Because the community has given them so much, they see serving as a way to give something back. RSVP volunteers discover that when they give, they gain a lot too.

VOLUNTEER COMMENTS FROM THE LATEST RSVP SURVEY:

"I am performing a worthwhile service by helping my fellow human beings."

"Volunteering keeps me mentally and physically happy and healthy."

"My service brings smiles and joy to others."

"I have a whole new outlook on life!"

"Helping children to read gives me a great feeling of accomplishment."

Service Opportunities

Anyone age 55 or over is eligible to be an RSVP volunteer. There are no restrictions based on education, income, experience, ethnic background or creed.

RSVP volunteers serve through a variety of nonprofit and civic organizations, designated as volunteer stations. Volunteer opportunities are available in many areas including: schools, museums, hospices, hospitals, nursing homes, libraries, recreation programs, home delivered meals, and a wide range of other organizations.

The Details

RSVP volunteers serve from a few hours to forty hours a week.

RSVP volunteers are not paid, but may be reimbursed for some limited costs incurred during service.

RSVP also provides appropriate volunteer insurance coverage.

RSVP volunteers receive pre-service orientation and in-service training from the organization where they are placed.

Burbank RSVP Education Programs

Road Map To The Future

The "Road Map to the Future" program encourages our community to recognize the importance of planning for the future. It's goal is to educate seniors and their families about available resources and services within the community to keep them in their homes as long as possible.

Seniors Against Identity Fraud

The SAIF program educates seniors about identity, telemarketing, and other types of fraud. Learn about how to protect yourself and your loved ones from becoming a victim of scam artists.
